

Throughout human history, God’s story of redemption has unfolded steadily toward its glorious conclusion. The Unfinished Story provides an inspiring overview of the biblical, historical, strategic, and cultural aspects of God’s mission – and invites you to be part of it. Embark on this journey with your church, small group, or discipleship team as you explore God’s unfolding plan together.

Format

The Unfinished Story is designed to be conducted within the small group rhythms of the local church. It can be offered either online or in person.

There are 4 sessions, each about two hours long. These sessions can be split out to 8 sessions of about an hour each if necessary.

Content

The Unfinished Story covers four major areas of mission concern.

Biblical We discover that the Bible has two main themes --God’s blessing to us through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ; and our mandate to be a blessing, carrying on Jesus’ redemptive work in the world.

Historical God’s mission purpose can be seen throughout history. We gain much from studying the past successes and failures of the church in the area of mission expansion, and applying those principles in our day.

Strategic We overview the progress of God’s mission in our day and the strategic priorities we must engage as the Church to be part of God’s mission.

Cultural God created the cultures of the world. We explore the dynamics of crossing cultures to communicate and make disciples in a culture different from our own.

Learning Methods

The Unfinished Story uses a combination of teaching and supplementary videos, prayer videos, reading, reflection and discussion.

Each participant receives a workbook with readings and process questions to reflect on how the Lord might be speaking to them. Since each session builds upon the previous ones, its ideal for participants to plan to participate in all sessions.

This course is best done by the whole church – together, with complementary teaching from the pulpit.

"This course has opened my eyes to the areas of need for outreach that I hadn't considered, and strategies that I can use in my daily life with people God puts in my path.
