

The Unfinished Story for Youth gives a big-picture look at God’s work in the world – biblically, historically, strategically, and culturally – so that youth can begin to understand how their lives fit into God’s Story and how He invites them to participate in what He’s doing among all peoples.

Format:

The Unfinished Story for Youth is designed to be conducted within the youth group of the local church. (It can also be useful in youth discipleship programs, Christian youth organizations or campus ministries).
It can be offered online, but in person is preferred.
There are 5 sessions, each about 90 minutes long.

Content:

The course content is divided in five sessions:

- 1. God’s Story
- 2. Christianity as a Movement
- 3. The Task Remaining
- 4. Discipling Nations
- 5. Our Journey on Mission
